

Laurence Pringle – Author Visit

Laurence Pringle, author of more than 100 fiction and non-fiction books, visited Emma Havens Young Elementary School on Friday, February 3, 2012 to speak to students about writing and publishing books. Students happily listened to Mr. Pringle as he talked about life as an author, and they also enjoyed hearing how he came up with the ideas for some of his fiction books. Mr. Pringle was able to show students some of his favorite illustrations in his books through the use of the school's document camera and projector. Eleven lucky EHY students were selected to eat lunch with Mr. Pringle based on essays they submitted outlining the reasons why they should be chosen for this once in a lifetime chance. Thank you Mr. Pringle for sharing your knowledge with our students!

